

AMBROGIO

A versatile centerpiece

... and a personal fruit holder

We all know it is important to eat daily our recharge of vitamins and minerals and fruits are great player in our diet. But sometimes we forget!

Fruit is usually in a basket in our kitchen. Its traditional shape is rounded and it is difficult to check how the fruit ripens and worst, sometimes it hides rotted fruits.

AMBROGIO instead helps you display your fruit and let you see how much fruit do you eat.

The slim shape of AMBROGIO and its form with 7 ditches allows you to have it where ever you like: in the kitchen, in your room or on your desk at work. It reminds you to eat your daily dose of natural, seasonal fruit. Your personal healthy assistant!

It occupies minimal space and it's "yours" fruit holder: just load it once a week.

In our Alpine region Trentino-Alto Adige, where we are based, we are well known producers of apples.

The Italian popular saying that an apple a day keeps the doctor away gave us the idea for a special fruit basket that helped us stimulating a good habit both for adults and children.
